POSITION: FARM PROGRAMS ASSISTANT

Earthwise Society has been a not-for-profit leader in ecological land use and environmental education for over 30 years. The Society operates a small-scale organic teaching farm and urban food garden programs at several sites in Delta, BC. We have an exciting opportunity for an energetic and articulate student who is interested in learning more about sustainable land use and food systems. Reporting to the Operations Coordinator, the farm program assistant will be responsible for:

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assisting with farming activities at Earthwise Society's Demonstration Food Garden, Teaching Farm, and Don't Mow Grow programs. This includes field prep, planting, maintaining, and harvesting crops
- Assisting with the delivery of hands-on educational programs for school aged students and adults related to growing food and gardening
- Helping maintain records for the organic certification process
- Assist with marketing activities including harvesting crops, setting up market displays, running our farm cart, preparing Community Supported Agriculture boxes and other marketing initiatives
- Work with teams of volunteers in farm programs, ensure volunteer engagement and retention
- Participate in organic soil management activities including composting, soil amendment and cover cropping
- Ensure crops receive required water, implement irrigation and water conservation strategies
- Assist with outreach and special events in the community

QUALIFICATIONS

- Post secondary education in Agriculture or Environmental Studies or similar field
- Good understanding of sustainability issues and ecological principles
- Good customer service skills and communication skills
- Enjoyment of outdoor physical work

TERMS

- Full time position: 35 hours a week at $16.75/hr
- This position will be located at 6400 3rd Avenue in Delta, BC.
- Weekend work will be required.
