

Consus Management Ltd. is a distinguished resource management company with a primary office in Williams Lake, BC, and a secondary location in Vernon, BC. With specialization in various resource fields, our team of skilled resource professionals strives to deliver high-quality and efficient products to our clients.

At Consus Management, we are deeply committed to the principles of Truth and Reconciliation. We actively engage with our local Indigenous communities, fostering practical and tangible initiatives that promote healing, understanding, and collaboration.

Our company takes pride in its progressive and innovative approach to environmental management. We are dedicated to ensuring sustainable forests for tomorrow, implementing cutting-edge practices and technologies.

With a combined experience of over 100 years among our supervisory staff, we have a proven track record of excellence, innovation, and respect in the industry. We take pride in our ability to provide a range of services tailored to client requirements.

Currently Consus Management Ltd. is seeking Forest Professionals & Junior Forestry/ Environmental Technicians to work within its Forestry/ Environmental divisions in both field and office settings. Summer student positions also available.

As a Forest Professional at Consus Management Ltd., your responsibilities will encompass:

- Planning and development of cable/ conventional road and harvest systems
- Preparation of Block and Road Site Plans, Harvest Plans, Cutting Permits/ Appraisals, Fuel Prescriptions, and other professional reports.
- Meticulous data management and quality control/assurance in both field and office settings
- Ensuring strict adherence to legal, regulatory, and client-specific requirements
- Effective supervision and training of field crew members

Qualifications for a Forest Professional:

- A deep-seated passion for the outdoors and a penchant for adventure
- Adaptability and self-awareness
- A minimum of 3 years of experience in road and cutblock layout, timber reconnaissance
- 2+ years of field/ staff supervision an asset
- Registration with the FPBC as either an RPF or RFT is preferred.
- A comprehensive understanding of forest policy, regulations, and guidelines
- Experience in road and cutblock layout, drafting site plans, harvest plans, cutting permit/ appraisals, riparian assessments, forest health, cruising, surveys, and wildfire management.
- Experience with ESRI platforms and Microsoft Office applications.
- A strong thirst for knowledge and a commitment to continuous self-improvement
- Possess a valid BC Driver's License.

As a Junior Forestry/ Environmental Technician at Consus Management Ltd., your responsibilities will encompass:

- Collaboration with experienced professionals to gain practical experience in the forestry and resource management industry.
- Participate in on-the-job training and professional development opportunities.
- Be part of a dynamic team dedicated to delivering high-quality resource management solutions.
- Work on a variety of duties based on current contractual obligations.

Qualifications for a Junior Forestry/ Environmental Technician:

- Physically fit and ready for fieldwork in various weather conditions.
- Possess a valid BC Driver's License.
- Self-driven individuals capable of working independently and collaboratively.
- Strong communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills.
- A strong thirst for knowledge and a commitment to continuous self-improvement
- Passion for the outdoors

Mentorship: At Consus Management, we're equipped to provide mentorship at all levels due to our extensive experience in the industry.

What We Offer:

In addition to the opportunity to be part of our dynamic team, we provide:

- Flexible holiday policies
- An industry-leading compensation package
- Opportunities for training and professional development
- Dental and extended medical coverage
- RRSP contributions (initiating after one year)
- A culture that promotes respect and inclusivity, welcoming individuals from all backgrounds

Application:

If you are seeking a full-time career as a Forest Professional or a Junior Forestry/ Environmental Technician position with Consus Management Ltd., we invite you to apply today.

Please apply in confidence by e-mailing your resume and cover letter with the subject header "Consus-Forestry Division Employment 2023" addressed to humanresources@consus.ca, attention: HR Manager. These positions will remain open until filled.