

DEPARTMENT OF FOREST RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Job Posting: Teaching Assistants

2024-2025 (Summer Term 2)

Graduate Teaching Assistants

Course No.: UFOR 511 – 951-Summer Term 2 (Aug 1-30, 2024)	Instructor: Paul Pickell
Course Name: Geomatics Principles and Applications	Total No. Required: 1 GTA
Required Qualifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ A degree in geospatial approaches, (urban) forestry, arboriculture, landscape architecture, conservation, or a closely related field, with proven interest in geomatics▪ Experience with various aspects/methods of geomatics▪ Excellent writing and editing skills▪ Experience with marking and providing feedback▪ Experience with supporting online course delivery
Description of General Nature of Duties: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Overall support to online course delivery▪ Support to geomatics exercises▪ Working with students individually (e.g., providing feedback on / marking assignments) as well as support of e.g., discussion forums
Hours Allotted: 9 hours per week for 10 weeks depending on budget and enrollment	